- identify and reject applicants who are unsuitable for work with children and young people.

STATUTORY REQUIREMENTS

There are some statutory requirements for the appointment of some staff in schools –. These will be met if appropriate.

INVITING APPLICATIONS

- Prospective applicants will be supplied, as a minimum, with the following:
- job description and person specification;
 - the organisations child protection policy;
 - the organisations recruitment policy (this document);
 - the selection procedure for the post;
 - an application form.

All prospective applicants must complete, in full, an application form along with references.

Short-listing of candidates will be against the person specification for the post

Where possible, references will be taken up before the selection stage, so that any discrepancies can be probed during the selection stage.

References will be sought directly from the referee. References or testimonials provided by the candidate will never be accepted.

Where necessary, referees will be contacted by telephone or e mail in order to clarify any anomalies or discrepancies. A detailed written note will be kept of such exchanges.

Where necessary, previous employers who have not been named as referees will be contacted in order to clarify any anomalies or discrepancies. A detailed written note will be kept of such exchanges.

Referees will always be asked specific questions about:

- the candidate’s suitability for working with children and young people;
- any disciplinary warnings, including time-expired warnings, that relate to the safeguarding of children;
